What Was the 2016 Illuminati Election Nightmare?

Sixbert SANGWA • September 09, 2024

The 2016 Illuminati Election Nightmare presents a sobering reflection on the manipulation of democratic processes, specifically in the context of the 2016 U.S. Presidential election. As described in the "Illuminati Agenda 21: The Luciferian Plan to Destroy Creation," the election is part of a larger conspiracy by the global elite, or Illuminati, to control political outcomes, maintain power, and manipulate public opinion. For Christians, understanding the spiritual implications behind such political machinations is crucial in order to remain vigilant and discerning about worldly events, especially those involving leadership, governance, and morality.

The 2016 election is depicted as a carefully orchestrated event by the global elite. Rather than allowing a true democratic process to unfold, the Illuminati allegedly work behind the scenes to create the illusion of choice. Candidates are selected not by the people, but by those in power who use political parties, media, and social divisions to manipulate outcomes. Evidence indicates that the elite have already chosen their candidates long before the public is even aware of the nominees, presenting a façade of democracy that distracts from the real forces at work.

The Bible warns us about these types of deceptive schemes in 2 Corinthians 11:14-15, stating: "And no wonder! For Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. So it is no great surprise if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. Their end will be according to their works". As Christians, we must remember that just because something appears to be righteous or democratic on the surface, it may still be influenced by darker forces behind the scenes.

One of the most concerning aspects of the 2016 election was the role of the media. Mainstream media outlets, according to credible sources, were heavily controlled by the elite. Instead of presenting unbiased news or information, they propagated narratives serving their owners' interests. This included focusing attention on certain candidates, stirring controversy, and using fear and division to sway public opinion. The media thus became a tool of mass manipulation, ensuring that the election result aligned with the desires of the global elite.

Christians must remain aware of the influence of media in shaping perceptions and narratives. The Bible encourages us to be "quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger" (James 1:19). This can apply to our consumption of media, ensuring that we seek truth in all things and do not react hastily to sensationalized news or biased reports.

A key theme in this topic is the use of division and fear as tools to control the populace during the 2016 election. The Illuminati elite allegedly exploited societal fault lines—be they racial, religious, economic, or ideological—to keep people in perpetual conflict. This "divide and conquer" strategy supposedly serves to distract the public from the true powers manipulating events behind the scenes. By sowing discord, the elite allegedly weaken society's capacity for unity and resistance.

Jesus warned against such division in Mark 3:25, saying, "If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand". As believers, we must strive to resist the forces that seek to divide us, recognizing that these divisions often serve to distract us from the larger spiritual battle at play. Our unity in Christ transcends all earthly divisions, and we are called to love one another and seek peace, even in the midst of political turmoil.

The 2016 election is seen not just as a political event but as part of a broader spiritual battle between good and evil. The Illuminati's involvement in elections is just one example of how Satan's forces attempt to shape world events for their own purposes. In this light, political manipulation is just one front in a much larger war for the soul of humanity.

The Bible reminds us in Ephesians 6:12 that "our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this darkness, against evil, spiritual forces in the heavens". As Christians, we must approach politics with a spiritual lens, recognizing that what happens in the physical realm is often influenced by spiritual forces. This awareness helps us to avoid placing too much trust in earthly leaders or political systems, and instead, to focus on the Kingdom of God.

Given the complex and manipulative nature of politics as described in the 2016 Illuminati Election Nightmare, what can Christians do? First, we must remember to prioritize our spiritual identity over any political allegiance. While political engagement is important, we should never compromise our Christian values or be swayed by fear, manipulation, or division.
Second, we must exercise discernment. This means questioning the narratives we are presented with, seeking truth from God, and being cautious about the information we consume. James 1:5 reminds us to ask God for wisdom: "Now if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God—who gives to all generously and ungrudgingly—and it will be given to him".
Finally, we must pray. Prayer is our most powerful weapon in the face of spiritual and political deception. By praying for our leaders, for discernment, and for unity within the body of Christ, we can resist the manipulation and control of the elite. 1 Timothy 2:1-2 calls us to pray for those in authority: "First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all those who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity".

In fact, the 2016 Illuminati Election Nightmare serves as a reminder to Christians that the political systems of this world are often manipulated by unseen forces seeking to advance their own agendas. As followers of Christ, we must remain vigilant, discerning, and committed to truth. Rather than being swayed by the fear and division that the world promotes, we should focus on our role as ambassadors of God's Kingdom, standing firm in our faith and trusting in God's ultimate authority over all things. While the political landscape may be complex and often deceptive, our hope is not in earthly governments but in Christ, who reigns as King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Isaiah 9:6 proclaims: "For a child will be born for us, a son will be given to us, and the government will be on his shoulders. He will be named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6).
